

lanche King, William Farnum, Justin Farnum, Elsie Ferguson, Elsie Friganza, DeWolf Hopper, Milton Lackaye, Frank McIntyre, Andrew Mack, J. Hartley Manners, Robert Mantell, Alla Nazimova, Guy Bates Post, Tyrone Powers, Julius Tannen, Fred Stone, Otis Skinner, Julia Sanderson, Julian Stinger, Leo Ditrichstein and William B. Mack.

ALIVE AND DEAD AVIATOR TRAPPED TO SEAT.

London, Aug. 11.—The flying-boat Felixstowe Fury, which was due to start Tuesday for Capetown, South Africa, on an 8,000-mile flight, crashed Monday off Felixstowe during a test flight. The wireless operator on board, Lieutenant MacLeod, was killed. The six passengers were rescued. The dead officer was found strapped in his seat when the wrecked craft was towed ashore. He had been drowned.

THROW PEPPER INTO EYES OF TURNKEY AND ESCAPE.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Robert Kenny and Gilbert Livingston of Pittsburgh and James Brown, a trusty, three prisoners in the Blair county jail, escaped in a highly sensational manner.

Brown, who had the freedom of the corridors, threw pepper into the eyes of the turnkey, Harry Gill, and then beat the officer into insensibility. He then used the officers' keys to open the cells, liberating Kenny and Livingston. The three men escaped over the jail walls.

Kenny and Livingston were captured later in the cellar of a private residence. They were discharged as soldiers and were convicted of the charge of robbing the residence of ex-State Senator E. M. Jones. Brown is still at large.

Negro Taken for Attempted Assault Rescued from Mob

Johnnie Moore Captured by Two Men Armed With Revolvers and Corn Knives—Crowd Gathers at House Where Prisoner Is Kept Awaiting Officers.

Johnnie Moore, 2560 Cumings street, colored, accused of attempting to assault four white girls between the ages of 9 and 14 years, was captured yesterday afternoon in a cornfield near Forty-first street and Redmond avenue, by Charles Daniels, 4124 Redmond avenue, the father of one of the young girls, and Clyde Pond, Forty-second and Himebaugh avenue, a cousin of another of the girls.

When the word of the alleged assailant's capture spread through the neighborhood, a score of citizens gathered near Daniels' home, armed with corn knives, revolvers and shotguns. Detectives Lloyd Toland and Paul Sutton rescued Moore and took him to Central police station where he was held without bond.

Ellen Daniels, 14, was tending some ponies in a field near her home about 2 o'clock yesterday when she noticed a negro coming toward her down a narrow path among the weeds in the field.

Frightened at the man's demeanor, she started to run in the opposite direction. The negro circled about through the weeds and confronted her again. The girl turned and fled toward home. The negro pursued her and as she emerged from the field he came close enough to catch her skirt. The girl screamed and her assailant released her.

Clyde Pond, then searching for a negro who had chased his cousin, Helen Lee, 11, only an hour before, heard the scream and pursued the negro with a corn knife.

Charles Daniels seized a revolver and with Pond's help captured Moore in the field in which he had pursued the girl. Moore put up a fight, but was soon subdued by the two white men.

Mrs. Julia C. Daniels, 72, Thirty-sixth and Fort streets, says Moore is the negro she ordered from her back door yesterday morning when she caught him trying to force an entrance through a window.

According to the police, Moore has been positively identified by Daisy Cooper, 11, 2617 Cass street, as the man who seized her five weeks ago near Twenty-sixth and California streets at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

William Gould, 3632 Elliston avenue, reported that Evelyn Brink, Thirty-first and Ames avenue, was also chased by the same negro yesterday afternoon.

Moore is reticent about his arrest except to disclaim all connection with the crimes with which he is charged.

The American capitol just was concluded just after he committee a embodying le sented by him ence. The r was acted on general the draft.

At the end secretary was the committe Hunter Mille official, who league of na Versailles.

Woman a Sever in

Mrs. George street, who were severe last night w which they w one driven l South Twen Twentieth an P. L. An street, who a which Mrs. A uninjured. M and her bab her head wh

Stewart w Murohy, 4139 accident the the scene in the police. T charged with less driving at $1,000 each