NEGROES TAKE PART IN LYNCHING NEGRO

Ellisville, Miss., June 26.—Trailed for ten days through southern Mississippi by persons which included severad hundred members of his own race, John Hartfield, negro, confessed assailant of an Ellisville young woman, was captured despertely wounded in a canebrake this morning, rushed by automobile to the scene of his crime, hanged to a gum tree and burned to ashes. His victim identified him and witnessed his execution.

Governor Bilbo, petitioned during the day to intervene, in a statement issued at Jackson shortly before the lynching, declared himself "utterly powerless," and said that interference would only lead to the death of hundreds of persons, and that "nobody can keep the inevitable from happening."

Under a big gum tree Hartfield forcibly detained his victim all of the night of Sunday, June 15. It was under a limb of the same gum tree that Hartfield was hanged as soon as the rope could be pulled up by hundreds of hands.

Before the rope had been cut by bullets, burning faggots were thrown under the body, and an hour later there was only a pile of ashes.
