

STORAGE IN CARS

Governor Discovers Perishable Foods Rot in Great Quantities.

SUGGESTS NEW ORDER FOR UNLOADING CARS

Inspectors Find Merchants Hoarding Railroad Property for Warehouses.

Columbus, O., Aug. 6.—Informed by the inspectors that car loads of perishable foodstuffs in some Ohio cars are being held as long as ten days before unloading, often resulting in waste, through decay, Governor Cox today asked Railroad Directors to fix a time limit of twenty-four hours "or other proper reasonable time" within which cars must be unloaded.

The evil practice of making use of railroad cars for storage purposes, the governor said in a telegram to Mr. Hines, "deprives traffic transportation means not only, but holds back from the market the goods to meet the demand which is required for quick turnover at moderate profit under reasonable and open competition."

According to inspectors of the public utilities commission, numerous car loads of potatoes, melons, peaches, peaches and other perishable food were found in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Dayton and other cities, which had stood on the railroad tracks for ten days and in many instances the food was spoiled. In some of the cities, it was said, merchants were using the cars as warehouses, withdrawing what they needed for the day and returning any surplus at night.

NEBRASKA LUTHERANS WILL START NEW DRIVE

Nebraska Lutherans, in connection with the United Lutheran church in America, will launch another campaign in the interests of church education.

In the last campaign, which closed last year, $175,000, made possible by the pledge of $175,000, the moving of Midland when they were told had been in storage twenty-five years. The officials declared that, while they believed if the hog had really been held for that length of time it was through an oversight, they intend to investigate further next week.

NEGROES AID SEARCH FOR GIRL'S ATTACKER

Surround Corn Field, but Fail to Find Assailant of Anna Glassman.

Mrs. Amelia Rushing, Aged Woman, Fights Off One-Armed Man.

Eleven policemen and several negroes from North Twenty-fourth street conducted a hunt yesterday for the negro assailant of Anna Glassman, 12 years old, of 1118 Davenport street.

Detectives in high-powered automobiles skirted the outlying districts in East Omaha all afternoon in an effort to locate the degenerate. At one time the police surrounded a corn field near the Illinois Central railroad bridge and, with drawn guns, prowled among the high stalks for more than an hour. A farmer's boy had told them that a man answering the description of the child's assailant had entered the corn field a few minutes before their arrival.

A negro about 5 feet 8 inches tall, wearing blue overalls, a soft, gray hat and brown shoes is the type of man the police were hunting. He entered the Glassman home at high noon.

"He came first to the front door and asked if I would sell him a chicken," Anna told the police. "I told him that my mother wasn't home and that I couldn't sell him anything. Five minutes later he appeared at the back door. He grabbed me, tied my hands and put a strap around me."

After the negro had gone Anna worked herself free from her bonds and went to the Peoples Ice and Cold Storage Co., where her father, Marcus Glassman, works. He took

STAGE HANDS OUT

Musicians Also Join and Two More Play Houses Are Forced to Shut.

CHICAGO ACTORS FACE CHARGES OF CONTEMPT

Judge Rules to Walk Out During Injunction Hearing Brings Liability.

New York, Aug. 16.—Stage hands and musicians tonight stalked forth from New York play houses in sympathy with striking stars for whom they previously had set the stage and played the fiddle.

Coming on Broadway's busiest night, when the theater goes, fearing the effect of the threatened subway and elevated strike, were determined to make the most of their last opportunity to visit the Rialto, the walkout of additional forces caused a flurry of excitement to spread through stageland. The news was received with cheers at Equity headquarters.

The first desertion occurred at Knickerbocker and Century theaters. It was followed almost immediately by another at the Cohan and Harris play house.

Fifteen Houses Closed.

Century roof garden stage hands and musicians were the next to join the ranks of the strikers, bringing the number of houses closed to fifteen, three more than last night.

R. B. Mahoney and Benjamin Squires, said to have been named by Secretary of Labor Wilson to act as conciliators, arrived today and conferred with Paul Turner, attorney for the actors.

Question of Contempt.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 16.—In the face of a pending injunction suit, fifteen members of the company showing at the Woods theater tonight joined the actors' strike. A telegram received from New York, backed up by an order from E. N. Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, caused the actors to leave the Woods. That is the third theater to be closed by the strike.

Nockels made an unsuccessful at-
