BLUFFS WOMAN ESCAPES ATTACKING BLACK MAN

As Ida Teip, 307 South Eighth street, was going home early last evening she was grabbed near 721 Willow avenue and dragged into the vestibule of the Bloomer school, by an unidentified negro.

She commenced to scream and her face was badly scratched by her assailant in his effort to prevent her making an outcry. Passersby, however, heard her and went to her assistance. The negro snatched her purse containing $20 and fled on the approach of aid. He is thought to have crossed the bridge to Omaha.
He was dressed in a light colored suit and cap and a negro answering this description was seen on this side of the river shortly after the attempted attack.

Eastern Cities Swelter in Heat

Washington, D. C., June 3.—Temperatures of 98 degrees, recorded officially today at Boston and at Scranton, Pa., marked the high points in the first hot wave which has over-spread the east and middle west since last Friday.

At Hartford, Conn., today the mercury reached 96, and at Buffalo 94, these being higher temperatures than have been noted at either city during any previous June in the forty-nine years for which official observations have been taken.
