

State Journal

SEPTEMBER 30, 1919.

Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.

SIXTEEN PAGES.

TWO CE

PRESIDENT IS FREE OF WORK OR WORRY

ORDERS OF HIS PHYSICIAN BEING CARRIED OUT.

Absolute Prohibition On Participation in Ratification Fight—Visit of Belgian King Is Postponed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Under an absolute prohibition against work or worry, President Wilson began today the vacation which has been prescribed as the cure for his attack on nervous exhaustion. After another troubled night he slept from early morning until toward noon, and in the afternoon was taken for an hour's automobile ride. The remainder of the day he spent quietly secluded in his room or talking with members of his family, his attention being kept scrupulously away from executive business of any form.

So thorough will be the effort to prevent him from doing any work that he will not be permitted, for the present, to see any of the senate leaders in charge of the fight for ratification of the peace treaty. White house officials believe it essential that this subject, which has occupied such a large place in the president's mind, be put entirely aside.

Visit of King Postponed.

The visit of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium to the white house also will be postponed. It was announced definitely today, because of Mr. Wilson's condition. Instead of being received by the president at the end of the present week, the king and queen first will make their tour of the country.

It was said at the white house that these precautions only were a part of Dr. Grayson's original program of quiet for the president, and were not to be interpreted as indicating any change in his condition. The president's physician has made no qualification of his original bulletin on Fri-

THE WEATHER.

Nebraska and South Dakota: Showers and warmer Tuesday; Wednesday partly cloudy.

Iowa: Showers Tuesday; warmer in west and north portions; Wednesday unsettled.

Kansas: Showers Tuesday; warmer in north portion; Wednesday partly cloudy.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

IN THIS PAPER.

Page One.

Striker ranks are standing firm in the Pittsburgh district.

The president of the Bethlehem company says the plant is but little crippled as a result of the strike.

Coal operators and miners are far apart on a wage scale.

Debate on the peace treaty ran all the way from the Omaha riot and lynching to the pact with Persia.

There is a concerted drive in congress to secure a bonus for soldiers.

President Wilson is obeying the orders of his physician to cease henceforth from work and worry.

With federal troops on hand in considerable number, and more on the way, the Omaha mob spirit quieted.

Page Two.

Prompt action was taken by the government in dispatching federal troops to Omaha.

Twenty-five negroes, prisoners in the Douglas county jail at the time of the riot, were brought to the penitentiary for safe keeping.

Howard H. Baldrige, Omaha attorney tells of the night of horror.

The railway men's strike in Great Britain is looking much better from a government standpoint.

American shipping of cargoes consigned to British ports is at a standstill.

Page Three.

Cincinnati is overwhelmed with visitors who are anxious to witness the opening of the world's championship series.

New York defeated Philadelphia in the final American league game.

Page Four.

Former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, while at Chicago spoke enthusiastically for the league of nations.

Page Five.

San Diego does not want an American Monte Carlo just across the Mexican line.

Page Six.

The Italian chamber of deputies was a scene of tumult during the Fiume debate.

Page Seven.

Dr. Des Jardiens tells the jury that Monte Seaschultz was irrational preceding his murder.

Page Eight.

Editorial comment on the night of mob rule in Omaha.

OMAHA QUIET AFTER RIOT

MOB SPIRIT DISSIPATED BY PRESENCE OF TROOPS.

DEATHS ARE LIMITED TO

MORE THAN A SCORE OF WOUNDED VICTIMS OF MOB.

Condition of Mayor Smith Improving, and Fatal Termination Likely—Government Regulators to Control.

BISMARCK, N. D., Sept. 29.—General Leonard Wood, who arrived this morning on military business, received orders to proceed to Omaha left on a special train.

(By the Associated Press.)

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 29.—The city was quiet tonight. With 800 troops from Fort Omaha and Crook, Nebraska, and Camp Dodge, Iowa, on duty along with several hundred special officers organized by the American Legion to help preserve order, officials were confident there would be no further outbreak of race rioting, which yesterday afternoon resulted in the death of several persons, injuries to several others, an attempt to lynch Ed P. Smith and the partial burning by fire of the county court house.

In addition to these forces, 250 officers and 250 men from Camp Grant, Kansas, and twenty officers and 550 troops from Camp Grant, scheduled to arrive here tomorrow when General Leonard A. Wood, commander of the central department of the army is expected to reach the city to take charge of military operations.